

PCI Pal Named Finalist in 2023 Cloud Security Awards

International Cloud Security Awards Program Unveils Finalists

Charlotte, NC – May 16th, 2023 – PCI Pal® announced today it has been named a finalist in The Cloud Security Awards 2023 in the Best Security Compliance in Enterprise category.

In its first year, The Cloud Security Awards program recognizes the latest advancements and innovations in cloud-based security solutions. The program received entries from organizations worldwide, including North America, Canada, Europe, the Middle East, and Australasia.

Among the categories in its inaugural year were 'Best Cloud-Based Security Solution,' 'Data Protection Solution of the Year,' and 'Cloud Security Innovation of the Year,' recognizing the most important aspects of cloud security in today's digital landscape.

Jane Goodayle, CMO of PCI Pal comments, “We are honored to be named a finalist in the Best Security Compliance in Enterprise category for the inaugural edition of the Cloud Security Awards. This recognition affirms our dedication to delivering secure and innovative cloud solutions to our customers. We are thrilled to be listed alongside other nominees and eagerly await the final stage of the program.”

Head of Operations for the Cloud Awards, James Williams, adds, “We are pleased to announce the finalists for the 2023 Cloud Security Awards. The quantity and quality of the entries we received are a testament to the significance of cloud security. The finalists we have revealed today have passed through a rigorous initial round, demonstrating exceptional cloud-based products and solutions that help organizations stay secure.

“Our panel of judges was impressed by the level of innovation showcased by the entrants across all industries, and PCI Pal is a worthy finalist.”
